Mapper – MapQuest Setup

After clicking the link, you'll see the MapQuest sign up page, similar to below:

The screenshot shows the MapQuest Developer sign-up page. The header includes the MapQuest Developer logo (A Verizon company) and navigation links: Login, Sign Up, Business, MapQuest.com, Pricing & Plans, Documentation, Blog, Forum, and Contact Us. The main heading is "Welcome to the family". Below this are three links: Create New Account, Login, and Request New Password. The sign-up form consists of the following fields:

- Username *
- Email address *
- First Name *
- Last Name *
- Company *
- Password *
- Confirm password *

Below the form are two checkboxes:

- By registering, you agree to our legal terms and conditions and privacy policy.
- I would like to receive news and email updates from MapQuest.

There is a reCAPTCHA box with the text "I'm not a robot" and a "Sign Me Up" button.

A grey box on the right side of the form highlights the offer: FREE
15,000
transactions per month

Enter your information, click the first checkbox, second one is optional. Then click the Captcha box. Click the "Sign Me Up" button to finalize your sign up.

After you signup, click the second link. This will allow to retrieve your keys.

The screenshot shows the MapQuest Developer account dashboard. At the top, there is a dark header with the MapQuest logo and the text "MAPQUEST Developer A Verizon company". Below the header, the main content area is divided into two sections. The first section is titled "Welcome Back, Duane" and contains a "Manage Profile" section. This section includes a heading "Manage Profile" and the text "Here is what we know about you:". Below this text are two input fields: the first contains "Your name here" and the second contains "Your company name here". The second section is titled "My Keys" and contains the text "Here are the last keys you have created:". Below this text is a single key entry with the name "Mapper" and a blue arrow pointing to the right.
